If you wish to meet with Fr. Carlyle, you may call the parish office Monday - Friday at 796-6877 or e-mail him at jcarlyle@sjtw.us

Welcome! Are you new to our Parish? Please introduce yourself to Fr. Carlyle before or after Mass and arrange to register with us.

Fr. Carlyle's Pastoralia

According to the Church's Code of Canon Law, "The divine law binds all the Christian faithful to do penance each in his or her own way. In order for all to be united among themselves by some common observance of penance, however, penitential days are prescribed on which the Christian faithful devote themselves in a special way to prayer, perform works of piety and charity, and deny themselves by fulfilling their own obligations more faithfully and especially by observing fast and abstinence."

As we prepare to do penance in the penitential season of Lent, I share these encouraging words of Pope St. Leo the Great:

With the return of that season marked out in a special way by the mystery of our redemption, and of the days that lead up to the paschal feast [Easter], we are summoned more urgently to prepare ourselves by a purification of spirit...

Initially, men are made new by the rebirth of baptism. Yet there still is required a daily renewal to repair the shortcomings of our mortal nature, and whatever degree of progress has been made there is no one who should not be more advanced. All must therefore strive to ensure that on the day of redemption no one may be found in the sins of his former life.

Dear friends, what the Christian should be doing at all times should be done now with greater care and devotion, so that the Lenten fast enjoined by the apostles may be fulfilled, not simply by abstinence from food but above all by the renunciation of sin.

There is no more profitable practice as a companion to holy and spiritual fasting than that of performing works of mercy. This embraces under the single name of mercy many excellent works of devotion, so that the good intentions of all the faithful may be of equal value, even where their means are not.

The works of mercy are innumerable. Their very variety brings this advantage to those who are true Christians, that in the matter of almsgiving not only the rich and affluent but also those of average means and the poor are able to play their part. Those who are unequal in their capacity to give can be equal in the love within their hearts.

 PRAYERS REQUESTED****

Fr. Bo (C. Duane) Ryan (88 years old) founding pastor of St. Joseph the Worker, was recently diagnosed with a calcified aortic valve that urgently needs to be replaced. He is being admitted to Missouri Baptist Hospital in St. Louis for this procedure which hopefully will take place early next week. Fr. Ryan requests that we keep him in prayer.

SECOND COLLECTION NEXT WEEKEND

Catholic Charities Emergency Assistance Fund provides stability to those faced with tough choices—people who must choose between filling a prescription or paying a utility bill, between buying groceries or repairing their car. With your help, we can continue serving those most vulnerable in the community. Donations made in the second collection on February 17-18 will go directly to Catholic Charities Emergency Assistance.

OUR RESPONSIBILITY TO PROTECT GOD'S CHILDREN

The Diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph is committed to combatting sexual abuse in the Church. If you are a victim of sexual abuse, or if you observe or suspect sexual abuse:

- 1, Call the Missouri Child Abuse Hotline at 1.800.392.3738 (if the victim is currently under the age of 18), and
2. Contact your local law enforcement agency or call 911, and
3. After reporting to these civil and law enforcement authorities, report suspected sexual abuse of a minor or vulnerable adult to the Diocesan Ombudsman, Jenifer Valenti, at 816.812.2500 or JeniferValenti@att.net, if the abuse involves a priest, deacon, employee or volunteer of the Diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph.

The Diocese has a sincere commitment to providing care and healing resources to victims of sexual abuse and their families. Please contact Victim Advocate, Kathleen Chastain, at 816.392.0011 or chastain@diocesekcsj.org for more information.
